

IAG 2025 Nomination: Best Work Place – ANGEL

We as team members of ANGEL, are very fortunate to be able to contribute to ANGEL's businesses which covers a wide range of security products to gaming industry; from specialized playing cards, electronic baccarat shoe, casino currencies, cage system and smart table system. We know our many strengths as ANGELs which includes job security, growth and endless opportunities. This gives us the ability to focus on our work 100%, knowing that our life and families are well taken care of.

Working in a prestigious company like ANGEL has been a very good workplace and pleasant environment. Having to work with in this company builds and develop not only your career but also your character. Having a good leadership from superiors prioritize the growth of each employee and at the same time balancing fun times. Many times, we are taught to work hard but also play hard, we can find joy in the work we do. Because if it is all work and no play, makes us dull Joe.

ANGEL has provided to us a truly positive experience, thanks to its pleasant and supportive environment, from both local office and our overseas branches.

Being a part of this company not only helps you grow professionally but also shapes and strengthens your character with the help of strong and inspiring leadership, from our superiors which prioritizes the development of each employee while maintaining a healthy balance between productivity and fun.

The diversity within our workforce made up of people from various nationalities and cultures adds a vibrant and enriching experience. It allows us to learn more about different cultures, making our workplace not only more inclusive but also more exciting and enjoyable. We also learnt the importance of mutual respect and regular communication among us.

😊😊 COME JOIN US!! 😊😊